

2018 Montrose Township Farmers' Market

Thursday, June 7	HQ VIGILANTE FOOD TRUCK – FROM OWOSSO	4-8 p.m.
Owned and operated U.S. Army Veterans Melanie and Stephen	“Not your normal food truck,” and the menu is designed to emphasize quality over quantity. That means everything is made in-house. Vegetable are cut to order in front of customers, and the food is cooked using only olive oil, no grease. Since preparing meals from scratch takes a bit longer than normal, Melanie and Stephen make a point of entertaining and engaging their guests while the food is being cooked. The menu is as unique as the truck, with items such as the Guantanamo, the W.M.D (Wraps of Mass Deliciousness), Lean Mean, Semper Fi, Flying High, Rusty Dog, Wowitzer, HQ Vigilante Burrito Bombs, and the All-American, among other selections.
Thursday, July 5	CHEESE TRAP FOOD TRUCK – FROM FRANKENMUTH	4-8 p.m.
Owned by Frankenmuth Cheese Haus	Gourmet grilled cheese, fried cheese curds, tomato bisque soup, potato tots, cheese spreads, dips and salsas.
